LOCAL POLITICS.

THE LIBERAL MASS MEETING. PREPARATIONS FOR AN IMMENSE GATHERING ARRANGEMENTS FOR THREE IN-DOOR AND EIGHT OUT-DOOR MEETINGS.

The Executive Committee, composed of three from each of the political organizations engaged in making arrangements for the grand mass meeting to ratify the nomination of the Liberal candidates, is al-ready well advanced in its preparations. The Committee will meet daily hereafter at Tammany Hall, to receive reports and discuss measures. Cooper Union and the Academy of Music are too small to accommodate the vasi throng that will assemble in honor of the Liberal cause, and the space in front of either is also too limited. The Academy of Music will not be leased hereafter for political gatherings of any kind. It has been recently refurnished, and the trustees say that the damage don by those who gather at political meetings more than ounterbalances the rent received. The Committee has under consideration a project to erect a wigwam, or pitch a large tent, on the northerly side of Union-square, either one to be capable of accom-modating an audience of 5,000 persons. Tammany Hall and Irving Hall have also been hired for the occasion. In addition, eight large stands will be erected at various points in Union-square and Fourteenth-st. It is intended that 100,000 people shall be afforded facilities for hearing the various speakers at the wigwam or tent, the halls,

Each ward and Assembly District will be represented on that evening by processions bearing banners, trans-parencies, and terches. Already some of the larger or-ganizations have begun the work of preparation. The wigwam or tent, the halls, and the speakers' stands with be handsomely decorated with bunting of various hues, dags of all nations, and Chinese lanterns. Union-square will probably present the appearance that it did four years ago, on the occasion of the grand Democratic ratification meeting. On that occasion the whole of Union-square was festooned with Chinese lanterns, and at intervals they were suspended on cords crossing from the buildings to the railing of the square. More than 10,000 lauterns were used, and it is intended that quite is many shall be displayed in September. Objections have been urged to the project of erecting a tent or wigwoin, on the ground that the former would be exdingly dangerous in the presence of fireworks and that the latter would require an onliny of from $7,000 to $10,000. It has been suggested that it would be well to hire the Circus building in Fourieenth-st. It will hold about 4,000 perd all danger from fire would thus be obviated, while the expense would be very much less. This building, with Tammany Hall, which will accommodate nearly or quite 4,000 persons, and Irving Hall, which will hold 2,500, will afford space enough for the in-door audi-nearly or quite 4.000 persons, and Irving Hall, which will hold 2,500, will afford space enough for the in-door audiences. It is intended that the meeting shall be one of the most imposing ever held in this city, and the display of ornamention and fleeworks one of the fluest ever made at a political gathering.

The list of speakers who have been invited, and the majority of whom have airrady signified their willingness to attend, comprises some of the strongest men in the ranks of the Liberal Republican and Democratic parties. Among the more prominent are Senators Sundarf, Schurz, and Trumbult; ex-Senator Hendricks of Indiana, ex-dov. Horatio Seymour, ex-Senator Pugh, the Hon. Win. S. Groesbeck, and the Hon. George H. Pendleton of Ohie; the Hon. D. W. Voorhees of Indiana, the Hon. R. M. T. Hunter of Virginia, the Hons. S. S. Cox, Francis L. Kersan, and wm. Dursheimer of New-York; Wm. W. Sannders, the colored orator, and others. The nominees for Governor and other State offices will also be present. The details of the meeting have not yet been fully airranged, but everything is in excellent form, and the Committee promises that before the date of the meeting the programme will be perfected.

The Excentive Committee, the Hon. Algernon S. Sullivan, Chafrman, mot, yesterday, at Tammany Hall, to receive the report of the Committee on Spoakers and Rooms. The list of speakers given above was submitted. The Committee also stated that it had submitted the project of a wigwam to several builders, and had ascertained that it would cost about $7,000 to excent such a building as was required, and the builder would allow from $1,000 to $2,000 for the material when the structure was taken down. #### KEY-NOTES OF THE CANVASS. AMNESTY A NATIONAL NECESSITY — SPIRITED MEETING ON THE EAST SIDE.

The Xth Assembly District (Fifteenth Ward) Greeley and Brown Campsign Club held a mass meeting at Third-ave, and Seventh-stiast evening. A large stage was spected at the junction of Third and Fourth-aves., decorated with Chinese lanterus, as were also the huildings below on either side of the avenue. Previspeaking a targe banner bearing portraits of and Brown was unfurled, and fireworks were dis played, one large piece was a representation of Mr. with an ax on his shoulder. A little after 8 p. at 4,000 persons assembled around the stand, and n A. Willis, who, after speaking of the overthrow the Tammany Ring, said that the present ign was also for Reform, and would result in the same victory in the interests of the people, The Hon. Algernon S. Sullivan, Assistant District-Attorney, was then introduced and said:

M1 NEIGHBORS AND PELLOW-CITIZENS: Amid all the in Mildibons and Fellow-Citizens: Anid all the dement of this assembly, and the splendor of the day, one question still comes to me and to you, and make an answer. What does all this mean? We came trangit not morely for show, display, and dide noise, as carnest, grave, serious men, who have an earnest eletermined purpose. A great many well-meanmen among our adversaries—and it is well to be he and generous toward them—such men a Wen-Phillips, Gerrif Smith, and Henry Ward Beecher, that it Hornes Greeiey is elected to the Presidency very that will elect him will be a reactionary on ant if forace Greeiey is elected to the Presidency by that will elect him will be a reactionary one, the in some way or other overthrow the principles and will in some way or other overthrow the principles of freedom and liberty which were established by the war. Now, I want you to say that all this is groundless; that all these charges are false. If there is one party in this country which more than any other by its traditions and its instincts will, through thick and, thin, stick to the doctrine of personal interty and personal rights as being above all considerations of property, it is the old, progressive liberty-loving Libertal Republican Democratic party which has united on the Cinemant and Baltimore platerns to support Horace Greeley for the Presidency of the United States. Auted West Point, Aug. 19, in which, after expressing thanks for an invitation to address the meeting and regret at his inability to do so, he said :

thanks for an invitation to address the meeting and regret at his inability to do so, he said:

In my opinion, Horace Greeley will be elected President. I am thus confident because I believe that our wise nominations in Pennsylvania and Indiana will give us those States. I think we all, without distinction of party, should desire the election of Mr. Greeley, who has all the necessary qualifications for a successful Executive. He has a larger knowledge of public men and necessres than any other living American. In the department to which he has devoted his particular energies, that of journalism, he is the greatest success of the country. He is a man of lofty patriotism, boundless charity, and unstained morality. With peculiar truth he may be said to be that noblest and rarest work of God—an honest man. Gen. Grant was a great success as a seldier, but he has proved a wroteled failure as a state-man, statistics show that since the commencement of the war, $6,000,000,000 have been expended. Grant's own officials have comessed that for each dollar legitimately expended another dollar has been stolen from the Government. In my judgment, we need a chance of Administration and an auditing of accounts, although we may rest assured that there will be another voucher robbery before the present officials quit Wasamagton. The election of Mr. Greeley will be a triumph of the One-Term principle. It will give a blow to minitary availability, and will encourage the return of great civilians to public life; and, shove all, it will heal the wounds of the war, and restore union and harmony to our common country. The rebels surrendered seven years ago, yet Gen. Grant has been fighting the Soath ever since. Let us ciect Horace Greeley and have peace.

D. S. Searing, of South Carolins, was then introduced and said:

D. S. Searing, of South Carolina, was then introduced and anid:

All good citizens should support Greeley and Brown, whether they are Democrats or kepublicans. The United States will never become what the Constitution intends unless we are peaceful and harmonious. We must loster the arts and industries of peace and my aside old animosities of the war. Unless we do this we cannot continue a Republic. War in its nature is imperialism; the sword is a sceptre and wee to the nation that learns to look with idelations eyes upon a successful military chieftain. In every age of the world we find that the liberties of the world we find that the liberties of the people have been taken away by the sword. Peace alone can keep our country together as one vast Republic, and that peace must not be the forced peace of a military chieftain, but the peace of a philosopher and statesman. Born as I was in the South, from the very beginning of the war I forceas we what would happen. I did not sustain secession, nor will I, on the other hand, sustain centralism. The vast burned districts and devastated fields of the South are the result of the folly of those who had the government of that section; but now that we have come in our submission and said to you that we desire harmony and peace, will you not give it to us! (Cruce of "Yee, Yes," and appliance.] I represent those in the South who say: "Let the sword be laid aside in its scabbard forever, and let the Constitution once more be the platform of American citizens, let the Union be forever preserved not only from rebellion, but from centralism." If you consolidate hands of a military man, he might, without a moment's warning, plungs the country into war and strip you of the carnings of industry by heaping taxes upon you to support some new aggression. This country cannot survive another ten years without peaceful and harmonious relations between its various states and actions. Look at the results which have followed Gen. Grant's election. The men who were most eager to advocate his election now turn from him and declare that his personal government is threatening the liberties of the country. If the south be subjugated the batteries of centralism will then be aimed against the liberties of the North. The man who does not support the liberties of one section of the country cannot be supposed to be friendly to the liberties of any other section. Patriotism is not a sectional thing. It does not mean love for one part of the country and hate for another. It is universal, and takes all the citizens of the country into the vast embrace of a patriotic President such as Horaca Greeley will make. [Applause.]

Frank R. Lawrence of the Xth Assembly District said that Gen. Grant's Administration had been a constant that Gen. Grant's Administration had been a constant that Gen. Grant's Administration had been a constant encroachment upon the rights of the people, more particularly upon the rights of the South. He had interfered in State elections, and sought to control local matters with which he had no cencern, and was now endeavoring through the machinery of the Government to secure his own reflection. He had nedected his duties and forgotten those high aims which should animate a President of the United States. REFORM AND RECONCILIATION ADVOCATED IN

THE KINTH DISTRICT. The IXth Assembly District Greeley and Brown Club was organized July 11, and at present has 395 members. Its officers are: President, John T. Ryan; Vice-President, George W. Hendrickson; Secretaries, Henry Freelegt, Josiah W. Criskey; Treasurer, John H. Lahey. At the meeting, last night, at Jefferson Hall, at Hudson and Charles-sts., the following resolutions were Warras, The present Administration has acted upon the sole motive of corporation in power; and the Parezas, I has to this end shown a most wanton disregard of the laws of the land, courring powers not granted by the Constitution, ignoring the most sacrod laws of American citizenship, and abusing the trusts reposed in it by the great mass of the people; tacerdore, be it Revolved, That we look upon a longer continuance in power of the present Administration as a grave menace to the best interests of the American poople; and, be it further Resoired, That, to correct the abuses in our national active which have already diagraced us too long both at home and abroad, we heartify and patriotically indorse, and call upon all good citizens of this district to indorse with us, the nonmers of the Cincinnati and Ballimore Conventions; feeling assured that in the election of Horacs Greely to the Presidency, and its Gratz Bown to the Vice-Presidency, a new era of political prosperity will down upon the country; that the differences between the North and South will be fully reconciler, and that under the guidance of wise statementally the nation will again be bleased with peace and flaramony in all its affairs.

that under the guidance of wise states mandaly the nation will again be blessed with peace and harmony in all its affaire.

Thomas Dugan of Brooklyn was introduced as the first speaker. He pictured the disgraceful features of the Administration, dwelt upon the significance of the Liberal movement, and drew several historical parallels. His remarks were frequently applanded.

Major Charles C. Aleshire, formers of the regular army, was next introduced. He was n't an orator, he said, but he wanted to have a "square talk." He had fought under Graat, and admired him as a military leader; so did the country, and had made him Lieutenant-General, which was a proper and sufficient reward. He had accepted the Presidency against the advice of Gen. W. T. Sherman, who told him "to stick." The issue lay between two men, Greeley and Grant. Grant claimed to represent the National Republican party, but roully represented the National Republican Convention, which was made up of office-holders acting under orders—not Sunner, not Bainks, not nien of their stamp. Grant, too, only stood for what a party 1.ad chanced to make him, since he was a Breckenridge Democrat 12 years ago, and in the army said that if the war was waged for the overthrow of Slavery he would hang up his sword. Mr. I reeley had, on the contrary, contended for a principie all his days. The speaker was a Democrat. Democracy had had two issues with the Republican party, one on Slavery, and the other on Suffrage. They had fought both, but the Republicans had carried the day, and Democrats had fairly necepted the issue. As Greeley had fought for it, and as Democrats accepted it, if any man could tell why Greeley and they should not. No one did, but he gave it; it was that, from the hour when the white flag went up, Greeley had advocated reunion. There had been a war for principles; both sides accepted the issue; Greeley believed that there was no further reason for variance. The chasm was to be filled, not bridged. said, but he wanted to have a "square talk." He had

A partial list of office-holders who have been sent as delegates and alternates to the Republican State and Soldiers' and Sailors' Conventions to be held at Utica to-morrow is given below. A good many of them departed for that place last evening, and will be absent for several days, although there will be no deduction from their wages while they are away. It is under stood that their presence at the Conventions, to attend which they have to defray their own expenses, is a voluntary matter, and yet a political duty not to be neglected without betekening disloyalty to the Administration candidate. In down-town wards, where disaffection exists among some of the old members and the Mur-phy factions, non-residents of the districts have been chosen. CAMPAIGN GOSSIP AT HEADQUARTERS. The headquarters of the Liberal Republican National Executive Committee, at the Glenham Hotel, were very quiet, yesterday. No business of importance was transacted. Among the letters received was one from Central New-York, in which the writer says:

from Central New-York, in which the writer says:
Although a postmaster under the Administration, I am not in favor of Gen. Grant's recilection. I am, as I have always been, body and soul with the Liberal movement. Casting my first vote for Harrison and Tyler, I have followed in the ranks of the Whig and Republican parties. Some months since I became convinced that Gen. Grant's course was calculated to bring ruin upon our country. I hailed with gratitude and loy the Liberal movement and the nomination of Greeley and Brown. There are a number of Republicans in this section outspoken for Greeley and Brown, some secretly in their favor, and others "on the fence," while the Democrats are united and carnest in the work.

Having been the first newspaper in the Southern States to hoist the names of Greeley and Brown, we naturally feel a great pride in the success of our chosen candidates. Notwithstanding the incontrovertible fact that the white people are a unit for the Liberal ticket, and that Georgia will give a clear majority for Greeley and Brown of 75,000, yet we ought to swell the majority to 100,000. From the "straight-outs" here there need be no apprehension. They do not amount to a corporal's guard, and are need of no general or political influence. A gentleman writing from Rock Island, Ill., speaks of the situation as follows:

the situation as follows:

The prospects are very good here. Our County Convention, yesterday, was the largest ever held in this county by any party, and was perfectly harmonious. We have a spiendid ticket, and hope to elect it. The number of Republicans present at the Convention, comprising the best and most influential men from the different sections of the county, was a surprise to all of us. No Democrats, except a very few of secession proclivities, object to Mr. Greeley.

Mr Draw Mr. Landbon: I am obliged by your favor of the 9th August. Absence from home is my apology for my silence. I believe in Gen. Grant fully. There is semething so ridiculeus about this dinner affair, that I really don't care to talk or write about it. While it would have given me great pleasure to disc with our worthy President, and while an invitation to disc with him in the circumstances would have been a valuable fact against prevailing prejudices, I should be ashamed to charge the omission to invite me as an offense against me or my race. The President was under no obligation to much enjoyed my dinner at your hospitable table last Winter, sa public on this subject, but I would rather stold it. It is enough that I am with all my heart laboring to elect U. S. Grant President of the United States for a second term. I certainly should not so labor if I thought him expable of offering me an insuli because of the color of my skin. With kind remembrances to all your kind circle. Yours, very

INFURIATED OFFICE-HOLDERS-LIBERAL RE-CRUITS IN NORTH CAROLINA-CONCERNING TWO SENATORS-THE OREGON CAMPAIGN. INY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 .- Federal patronage

seems to be a sort of two-edged sword that cuts both ways, much to the perplexity of those who use this dangerous weapon. In the brief bulletin of appointments issued by the President during his visit here on Friday it was announced that the name of Ken-ton R. Cobb was dropped from the list of Cobb was dropped from the list of Supervisors of Internal Revenue, and that John McDonald was substituted in his place in charge of the Mis-souri District. This change was compelled at the time by the demands of Western politicians. It so happens that the discharged Supervisor is a brother of Clinton L. Cobb, Grant member of Congress from the Ist North Carolina District, who is thoroughly enraged at the treatment of his brother by the President, and is now on his way with Senator Pool in search of the chief magistrate to demand some other position for his unfortunate relation. These two Congressmen intend to demand that Supervisor Perry of North Carolina, the carpet-bagger, who rendered such important services to the Administration in the late election in that State, be retired to make way for the displaced Cobb, or else there will be more trouble in the old North State. William M. Coleman, who was elected Republican Attorney-General in North Carolina in 1868, and who, up to the present time, has adhered to the Grant party, has just written a letter declaring for Greeley. Since the State election, the Hen. R. W. Lassiter, a prominent Re-publican State Senator, has declared to the same effect. The accessions to the Liberal movement have been greatly accelerated by the practices of the Administra-tion party during the State election.

Senator Harlan is said to be making about $1,000 per week by printing campaign documents in his newspaper establishment here.

Advices from Oregon of a recent date to the Liberal Campaign Committee here are to the effect that Greeley will anguestionably receive the electoral vote of that State. The railroad influences in that locality will renain neutral in the struggle so far as the Presidency is concerned and only exert their strength in behalf of the United States Senator.

> A SLANDER NAILED. A. T. STEWART'S POSITION.

[SY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] SARATOGA, Aug. 19 .- A paragraph appeared in The Daily Saralogian this morning stating in positive terms that A. T. Stewart used this language to a citizen of New-York City: "The election of Mr. Greeley would be a national calamity to the country. If he is elected God help us!" Mr. Stewart is here, and when asked by friends to-day as to the truth of the above, denied it nost unequivocally, stating that there was not the least foundation for the story, and that he has never made any remark which can be so understood.

The shortest and silliest letter of the season that of J. R. Johnson of Herndon, Fairfax Co., Va., to the Washington colored men. It is this: "To vote for Horace Greeley for President is to peril most fearfully the most precious interests of this nation."

It is reported that the Hon. M. G. Everts of Rutland, Vt., who was nominated a month or two since by the Grant Republicans for State Senator, shows such tendencies toward Liberalism that the Grantites have determined to nominate another candidate.

The Irish Republican Association of Pennsylvania has issued an address cailing on Irishmen to vote for Grant as the enemy of England and the champion of Irish rights. The address urgos, as one instance of this friendship, the nomination of A. T. Stewart as Secretary of the Treasury.

Gov. Koerner is incurring the censure of Administration journals by naving the audacity to speak -in German to Germans! One of these indignant -in German to Germans: One of these indignant sheets says it is "a very mean dodge for the purpose of resping a personal benefit by misrepresentation." It will probably be a startling item of information to Germans that their language is the most available medium of communicating "misrepresentation" and "slanders."

The Hon. Geo. M. Stearns in a speech at Westfield, Mass., on Saturday night, declined to be a candidate for the Liberal nomination to Congress in that District. The Springfield Republican says that this re-Jusal "will be a disappointment to the friends of the Liberal movement, while it will give unbounded satisfaction to the Republican leaders, and it is safe to say, will be read with especial relief by Mr. Dawes." Mr. Stearns's reason is given briefly by himself. "I could not, it elected, afford to live with my family in Washington, and God knows I cannot afford to live without them at any price."

John J. Van Allen has issued a letter to the Straight Democracy of New-York. He insists that none but "brave, true men " shall hag." He insists that hone but "oraye, true men "suan be sent to Louisville, and adds that "God hates cowards as does the true Democrat." The flax of the Democraty "must not," he says, "be longer polluted by such dastard hands" as those of "its worst enemy and hie-long traducer." INTIMIDATION OF COLORED LIBERALS. A COLORED GREELEY SPEAKER WARNED TO LEAVE CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 19 .- Considerable excitement was created here last night by Tabbo Goss, a colored Greeley speaker, who stated that he was called on by a party of colored men during the night and rarned to leave the city. He was advertised to speak at Covington to-night. There was a large force of police on hand to protect him.

He is certain he was warned to leave the city, but all efforts have failed to discover the names of the persons who threatened him. Very few colored men attended the meeting to-night, and there was no disturbance. The colored men of this city have issued a call for a meet-ing to-morrow night in behalf of free speech.

THE CHICAGO WHEAT CORNER.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.)

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.-The corner in wheat, which has held its own persistently for some time, was broken to-day, and the grain fell 28 cents, starting in the morning at $1.66, and ending the quotation at $1.28. The business at this season is unprecedented, as wheat at this time is hardly in shape for cornering. Whether the ring is broken or not is hard to say, but there is some thing very like a panic among the bulls and bears, no one knowing just when the blow will fall. On 'Change there is the intensest interest, and some fears of mis-chief among the large dealers, but as yet all is con-

[GENERAL PRESS DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—The greatest excitement prevailed this afternoon in the wheat market, caused by an ap-parent or real collapse of the corner in that cereal. Wheat opened this morning at $1.565, cash, or seller August, but owing to the large receipts during the past 48 hours, declined to $1 48; it rallied again and closed at $1 50. At the 31 p. m. Board sales were made as low as

The feeling of weakness was quite apparent, and soon $1 49à. amounted to almost a panic. Amid intense excitement the prices rapidly declined until 1 28 cash, or seller August, was touched. The decline in September op-tions was less marked, opening 1 211, and the last sales on the street were at 1 14.

There appears to be a difference of opinion as to whether the corner really is broken or not, some holding that the drop was made to stop the influx of wheat to the city, and that the clique will again advance the prices. Others assert that the corner is effectually broken.

vesterday, to pour its rays upon sidewalks and roofs. The denizens of Mulberry, Baxter and Orange-sts. sweltered in close and stenchful rooms during the day, and swarmed upon sidewalks, stoops and house-tops at night. A shower, fell upon the city about 1 o'clock, p. m., but no apparent abatement of heat followed. Some people reluctant to part with a sensation of the first order frequently ex-pressed the belief that Plantamour's comet had a great deal to do with the prolonged heat, while others at short intervals during the day consulted the thermometer with unappeased auxiety. Excursion steamers were liberally patronized, and at early dawn men, women, and children with heavily-laden baskets began to crowd the boats bound for Coney Island, Staten Island, and other places where cool breezes are popularly supposed to lark.
